

Comets Comeback on Senior Day; Walk-Off Midland

In an emotional Senior Day at Gorman Field, Grand Ledge took Tuesday's game in dramatic fashion with a 5-4 walk-off victory over Midland.

After the first two innings went scoreless, Junior Thomas Kerrigan singled to leadoff the third. After a couple of walks, Kerrigan scored on a wild pitch to give the Comets the early lead.

Midland got on the board in the sixth, scoring two and taking the lead. They scored two more in the seventh to extend their lead to 4-1.

In the bottom of the seventh, the Comets had some work to do. With one out, Junior Nathan Droste reached on an error, Senior Noah Warren singled, and Senior Logan Todd was hit by a pitch. With the bases loaded, Senior Kaden Nowak lined a two-run single to centerfield, scoring two. Still down a run, Senior Aiden Alspaugh reached on an error, scoring Todd, and tying the game. With Nowak representing the winning run, Sophomore Caleb Estrada stepped up and lined a single to right, giving the Comets the 5-4 victory.

Senior Jack Franco got the start on the mound for the Comets, working five plus innings, allowing six hits, two runs and struck out two. Droste and Junior Carson Winans worked in relief, with Winans earning the victory.
