

Mance Shuts Down Okemos in CAAC Blue Showdown

Junior Cole Mance threw another shutout in Monday's game against Okemos, as the Comets won the doubleheader opener, 10-0 in five innings.

In a scoreless game in the third, the Comets got on the board as Senior Aiden Alspaugh lined a single to center, scoring Junior Nathan Droste who reached on a single and Senior Logan Todd who worked a walk.

In the fourth, Sophomore Caleb Estrada walked, Junior Ethan McCartney singled and Droste walked. Senior Noah Warren drove in two with a single to right. Warren later scored on a sacrifice fly by Alspaugh.

The Comets reached the mercy rule in the fifth, as Todd drove in two with a single to center, 10-0 Comets.

Mance was once again brilliant on the mound, tossing five innings, allowing only two hits, walking one and striking out four.

WIN: Mance (3-0) 5 IP, 2 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 4 K
Todd: 2-3, R, BB, 2 RBI
Alspaugh: 3 RBI

Comets Hang on to Earn Sweep of Conference Foe Okemos

GL built a four-run lead in the third inning and then had to hold off Okemos' late charge for a 4-3 victory in game two of the doubleheader.

The Comets opened the scoring in the first inning, when Senior Kaden Nowak singled to score fellow Senior Noah Warren, who reached on a single. Senior Logan Todd later scored on a fielder's choice by Junior Cole Mance. Nowak then scored on a wild pitch.

The Comets scored their final run of the game in the third, when Mance laced a double to center, scoring Junior Thomas Kerrigan, who singled earlier in the frame.

Warren earned the win on the mound, going six innings, allowing zero runs, scattering one hit, walking two and striking out nine. Senior Jack Franco worked the final inning for the Comets.

WIN: Warren (3-0) 6 IP, 1 H, 0 R, 2 BB, 9 K
Mance: 2B, 2 RBI
Nowak: H, RBI

The Comets are currently 12-0 (4-0 CAAC)
