

Comets Down Lansing Catholic

Grand Ledge had all cylinders firing on offense on Tuesday, leading to an 8-1 win over Lansing Catholic.

The Comets scored three runs in each of the first two innings. Senior Noah Warren singled to lead off the game, later scoring on a single from Senior Aiden Alspaugh. Alspaugh later scored on a ground out from Junior Cole Mance.

In the second, Warren drove home two on a double, later scoring on a double from Senior Logan Todd. In the fifth, Senior Kaden Nowak doubled, again scoring on a double from Alspaugh. The scoring was capped off in the sixth, when Nowak singled home Junior Owen Smith, who reach on a single of his own.

Junior Carson Winans earned the win for the Comets, tossing four scoreless innings, allowing just one hit, and striking out five. Senior Jack Franco and Nowak worked the final three innings to seal the victory for the Comets.

WP: Winans (3-0) 4 IP, 1 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 5 K

Warren: 2-4, 2 R, 2B, 2 RBI

Alspaugh: 2-3, 2B, 2 RBI

Comet Bats Lead to Big Game Two Victory

Even though Grand Ledge gave up three runs in the fourth inning, they still defeated Lansing Catholic 13-3 on Tuesday.

Grand Ledge did not score until the third inning, when Junior Owen Smith led off the inning with a single, Junior Ethan McCartney walked, and Senior Logan Todd drove in Smith. McCartney and Todd later scored on a double from Senior Kaden Nowak.

In the fourth, Junior Jackson Collier lined a single to center to lead off the frame. Junior Cole Mance reached on an error, leading to a 2-run double for McCartney. The Comets extended the lead in the fifth, when a triple from Smith led to two Comet runs.

The Comets put the game out of reach, when four straight doubles from Senior Noah Warren, Todd, Nowak, Sophomore Caleb Estrada resulted in five runs.

Sophomore Andrew Konieczny got the game two start for the Comets. Konieczny worked four innings, allowing just two hits, three runs, three walks and six strikeouts. Senior Dillon Pfau worked the final two scoreless frames, striking out two along the way.

WP: Konieczny (1-0) 4 IP, 2 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 6 K

Todd: 2-3, 3 R, 2 H, 2B, BB, 2 RBI

Nowak: 2-4, 2 H, 2 2B, 3 RBI

Estrada: 2-4, 2 2B, RBI

Smith: 2-3, R, 3B, RBI

Comets improve their record to 24-2 (11-1) on the season.