

Comets Hang on to Defeat Holt

Despite seeing its eight-run lead whittled down by the end, Grand Ledge held off Holt for an 8-7 victory on Monday.

Grand Ledge fired up the offense in the first inning, when Senior Aiden Alspaugh homered, scoring two runs.

The Comets notched three runs in the fifth inning. The big inning was thanks to a sac fly by Alspaugh, a groundout by Sophomore Caleb Estrada and an error on a ball in play by Junior Cole Mance.

Mance earned the win for the Comets. The righty allowed five hits over 6 innings of work, striking out five. Senior Kaden Nowak earned the save for the Comets.

GL totaled nine hits, led by Seniors Logan Todd, Noah Warren, Alspaugh and Nowak.

WP: Mance (5-0) 6 IP, 5 H, 6 R, 0 ER, 2 BB, 5 K

SV: Nowak (1) 1 IP, 2 K

Alspaugh: 2-3, R, HR, 4 RBI

Todd: 2-3, 2 R, BB, RBI

Comets Blow Out Rams to Earn Doubleheader Sweep

Grand Ledge easily dispatched Holt 11-1 in game two of the Monday doubleheader.

GL scored early and often, getting four in the first. After a double in the fourth by Junior Jackson Collier scored one run, Junior Thomas Kerrigan drove home two with a single of his own.

The Comets capped off their offensive onslaught in the sixth, when Senior Noah Warren knocked an RBI double to left and Senior Kaden Nowak lined a double to right scoring Warren.

Warren pitched the Comets to victory, allowing only four hits over four innings, striking out five. Senior Dillon Pfau and Junior Nathan Droste teamed up to work two scoreless innings.

WP: Warren (4-1) 4 IP, 4 H, 1 R, 3 BB, 5 K

Warren: 3-4, R, 2B, 2 RBI

Kerrigan: 3-3, R, 3 RBI

Nowak: 2-4, 2 R, 2B, RBI

The Comets are now 20-2 (9-1) on the season
