

Comets Grab Lead in Seventh, Defeat Detroit Catholic Central

Grand Ledge snatched the lead late in the game in a 6-5 victory over Detroit Catholic Central on Tuesday. The game was tied at five in the bottom of the seventh, when Sophomore Caleb Estrada doubled to score the game-winning run in a predetermined 9 inning game.

Grand Ledge faced a three-run deficit early but responded in the third inning when a single from Senior Aiden Alspaugh scored Senior Noah Warren, who earlier walked. Junior Cole Mance contributed a sacrifice fly, scoring Senior Logan Todd.

Once again facing a three-run deficit in the seventh, Warren doubled to right and scored one batter later, when Todd launched a 2-run homerun over the centerfield fence. After Alspaugh doubled, Mance singled to score pinch runner Junior Logan Sandell. Estrada then scored Mance on a double to left center, giving the Comets the lead for good.

Warren got the win for the Comets, surrendering zero runs on three hits over two and two thirds innings. Senior Dillon Pfau, Sophomore Andrew Konieczny and Junior Nathan Droste worked out of the bullpen, with Droste completing the save. Senior Jack Franco started the game, working the first three innings, allowing four hits, three runs and struck out two.
